

[PROVISIONAL TRANSLATION FROM PERSIAN]

[Translator's notes appear in square brackets]

[Personal information has been redacted.]

In the Name of God

432- [date:] 28/1/1359 [17 April 1980]

Mr. Abolfazl Imani, salesman and driver of Zamzam Company, Narmak

Effective as from 29/1/1359 [18 April 1980] owing to your membership in the perverse Baha'i sect., you are hereby dismissed and prohibited from working.

In case you refute this matter, please have the local clerics and the Revolutionary organizations certify this denial and refer the matter to the company after it is published in the mass media.

Head of the company [illegible]-Zamani

[Signature over official stamp]