Amir Haji Bashiri, son of Agha Ali, and his wife, Shawkat Edalati, daughter of Ebrahim, are members of the perverse Baha'i sect and are associated with International Zionism, and have been residing in foreign countries for years. According to the letter dated 19 Khordad 1372 [9 June 1993] from the Document Bureau of the Ministry of Information, their membership in the above-mentioned perverse sect is confirmed, and they were summoned through a widely circulated newspaper of the Islamic Republic, but failed to appear before the expiration of the time limit. Therefore, by virtue of the order dated 17 Mehr 1370 [9 October 1991] from the Supreme Leader, and in light of their exclusion from the protections of the Islamic Republic, the Order approves the confiscation of the above-mentioned properties, along with any properties discovered in the future, for the benefit of the Executive Headquarters of the Command of the Imam; (may the Mercy of God be upon him), with regard to the rights of the mortgagee, Bank Sepah. This Verdict is enforceable upon approval of the esteemed head of Branch 1 of The Islamic Revolutionary Court of Justice of Tehran, Mr Nayyeri. H
