Circular

9 Azar 1359 [30 November 1980]

28906/701-1-2

Pursuant to circular letter No. 999, dated 31 Ordibehesht 1359 [21 May 1980], from the Provincial Department of Economics and Finance, you are hereby reminded that you must refrain from engaging Shabrokh Printing House for work. Since dealings with the perverse Baha'i sect are in violation of Islamic law, the Department of Finance is instructed to refuse to accept invoices for transactions [with the Shabrokh Printing House]. Any infringement of this directive will be severely punished.
