Enclosure -----

The Honourable Chief Justice, Branch 3, the Court of Law, Isfahan 1

In reference to letter number 2798 – 23 Azar 1370 [14 December 1991] - it is hereby announced that Colonel Amanollah Misaghi, who was identified as a leader of the Local Spiritual Assembly and a member of Khuzestan Baha'i [community], fled the country in the early days of the Revolution. In Court Order number 225-Z, dated 18 Mehr 1361 [10 October 1982], issued by the Islamic Revolutionary Court of Ahvaz, he and his immediate family members, including Sholeh Misaghi, were identified as heathens and apostates, and were therefore [adjudged as] not being under the protection of Islam. As such, all properties, movable and immovable, owned by him and his immediate family members, were turned over to the Islamic Bayt'u'l-Mal [Public Treasury].
