Approximately 80 thousand square meters of land and orchard properties which were possessed by the former Governor-General of Fars Province, Mr. Samadi, his brother, a group of Baha'is in Yazd, and some other individuals, were identified and reclaimed by the Endowment and Charitable Affairs Organization.

These properties were donated land and they were identified at the request of the Endowment and Charitable Affairs Organization in Fars Province.

In addition, at the request of the Shiraz Municipality, the division of land and construction on charity properties has been prohibited.
