Enclosed please find the original complaint of a few inhabitants of the village Lefer-Ferest<sup>1</sup> about the invasion of their lives and property (by the reason of their being Baha'is), by a few opportunists. You are directed to [take this matter seriously and] arrange for it to be carefully investigated and to take appropriate action in accordance with civil law and religious standards, and to prevent the repetition of such incidents in the future.

[Handwritten note at the middle of the page]

And that they do not harass religious minorities.
