

[PROVISIONAL TRANSLATION FROM PERSIAN]

[Translator's notes appear in square brackets]

[Personal information has been redacted.]

Islamic Human Rights Commission

[Organization name in English]

In the Name of God

Date: 29 Shahrivar 1375 [19 September 1996]

Number: BH 11979/75

Enclosure: -----

Vice-Chair of the Revolutionary Court of Shiraz

Respected Brother Mr. Dorji

With greetings

Respectfully, following a telephone conversation on 28 Shahrivar 1375 [18 September 1996], fax number BH 11978/75, dated 28 Shahrivar 1375 [18 September 1996], and also a telephone conversation on 29 Shahrivar 1375 [19 September 1996] about Mr. Ali Habibi, Birth Certificate number [redacted], and Sakineh Haghdoost, Birth Certificate number [redacted], who are considered to be in special circumstances, you said [they] should visit the Islamic Court of Shiraz on Saturday. I introduce them herewith and ask you to examine their claims of being innocent, whether right or wrong, and [investigate] the possibility that they may have similar names [to that of the accused] as soon as possible, and report your findings to the Commission, so that, should their claim be correct, their problems will be resolved.

Secretariat, Islamic Human Rights Commission

[Signature]

[Official stamp]

Address: Tehran [Address]

[Stamp] Postal Area 15 Tehran