Notification

We hereby notify Mr. Aminollah Amini, former head of the Malaria Eradication Office of Kashan, that, based on the default judgment of the Islamic Revolutionary Court, which has also been approved by the Supreme Court of the Islamic Revolution, you have been sentenced to repossession of all of your properties by the government (based on the crime of being active against Islam in the interest of the perverse Baha'i sect and harassment of Muslims). Therefore, this matter is being published for information and legal notification.
