Amnesty International Has Protested against Recent Executions in Iran.

Washington- Iran Times news service

...Amnesty International Organisation announced last Thursday 24 June, [1981] that it has asked all its members around the world to request the authorities of the Islamic Republic of Iran to end the new wave of executions of Baha'is, which started a few weeks ago.

Amnesty International in its report has mentioned the recent executions....

...in this report it refers to the execution of at least 10 Baha'is. Amnesty International in its report points out that other executions are underway...
