

[PROVISIONAL TRANSLATION FROM PERSIAN]

[Translator's notes appear in square brackets.]

[Personal information has been redacted.]

[The excerpt below is from the section of the article that pertains to the Baha'i Faith]

[Newspaper:] Abrar

[Date:] Tuesday 21 Bahman 1365 - 11 Jamada t-Tania 1407 - 10 February 1987

[Issue No:] 428

[Page:] 3

With the Agreement of the Deputy of the Supreme Leader and the Imam's Pardon Council,
For the Occasion of 22 Bahman, a group of prisoners nationwide will be exonerated

News Service

Due to the anniversary of the triumphant victory of the glorious Islamic Revolution, a large number of prisoners nationwide will be pardoned. Ayatollah Bojnourdi, the member of the Pardon Council of His Holiness Imam, in a News Conference announced the above news yesterday at noon and [further] described the conditions attached to the exonerated of the prisoners saying:

...The forgiving decisions of the Pardon Council will not cover those who have the following sentences...

...Those who are member of Anti-Revolutionary groups (unless having been simple supporters and their repentance before the Shari judge and Intelligence Office has been proven) and those active members of the Perverse [Baha'i] Sect, as well as those spies who are not covered by the Imam's pardon decree...