

[PROVISIONAL TRANSLATION FROM PERSIAN]

[Translator's notes appear in square brackets]

[Personal information has been redacted.]

[Emblem]

National Consultative Assembly

Office of the Secretariat

Number: 3770

Date: 3 Tir 1323 [24 June 1944]

Ministry of the Interior,

In telegram number 156 to this Assembly, the people of Qom have expressed their displeasure at propaganda contrary to the official religion of the country, Islam. A copy of the same has also been forwarded to your Ministry.

Diligently address the issue and communicate the results of any efforts to stop [any] propaganda inconsistent with Islam and contrary to peace and order.

The Speaker of the National Consultative Assembly

[Signature: Mohammad Sadegh Tabatabaei]

[Handwritten note 1:] Stamp: recorded in the confidential documents of the Ministry of the Interior, number 21029, dated 3 Tir 1323 [24 June 1944]

[Handwritten note 2:] Political, 3 Tir 1323 [24 June]

[Handwritten note 3:] Stamp: Ministry of the Interior, Office of Political Affairs; number 2364, date: 6 Tir [1323] [27 June 1944]

[Handwritten note 4:] In such cases, the guidance of the [Office of the Prime Minister] is normally sought.

[Handwritten note 5:] Now that we have an answer from the Office of the Prime Minister, refer to the telegram and reply. 18 Tir [9 July]

[Handwritten note 6:] Mr. Rezaei, please attach the response from Prime Minister's Office.

[Signature: Ameli]

[Handwritten note 7:] Mr. Rezaei, telegram 156 is not in the case folder. 19 Tir [10 July]