

[PROVISIONAL TRANSLATION FROM PERSIAN]

[Translator's notes appear in square brackets.]

[Personal information has been redacted.]

[The excerpt below is from the section of the article that pertains to the Baha'i Faith]

[Newspaper:] Karzar

[Date:] 17 Mordad 1334 [9 August 1955]

[Issue No:] 394

Dismissal of Baha'is from Most Offices

As per the instructions of Ayatollah Borujerdi--who had given up teaching due to the government's lack of attention and in fact had secluded himself--a considerable number of the Baha'i employees who had officially presented themselves as Baha'is in the government offices such as the Tobacco Company, were dismissed and [so] the ayatollah again started his teaching activities at the Islamic Theological School of Qom.