[Address]

[Three notes at the bottom of the letter, all dated 8 Aban 1392 [30 October 2013], state the following:

1. The first note says, “The original should be submitted to the archive to Mrs. Danesh to advise.”
2. The second note, addressed to a certain Mr. Jafari, states that there is no problem with reimbursing the money. Signature
3. The third note says, “According to our previous arrangement, since the University has rejected his enrolment, the account will be settled without (taking into consideration) the expenses of withdrawal (from the university). Signature]
