Baha'i Organization Setting the Trap for Iranian Youth

Maximum Propaganda of the Baha'i Organizations in Iran, Despite the Ban and Criminalization of Propaganda in the Country

According to Ferghe News, although Baha'i propaganda is banned in Iran, and the Baha'i organization is well aware of this, and also according to Baha'i leaders who have made it necessary to obey the orders and laws of their respective governments, this organization—contrary to the statements and beliefs of Baha'is—continuously, and by maximum publication in its media, aims to teach the Iranian youth under various headings, including social, artistic, educational, economic and religious issues.

It is noteworthy that the propaganda of the Baha'i sect in the usurper country of Israel has also been banned by the Baha'i leaders, and this organization does not carry out any propaganda in Israel, whether in cyberspace or in real life; but in Iran, despite the ban and criminalization of propaganda of this sect, they do not hesitate to take any action!

One should ask why the State of Israel does not allow the Baha'i organization to propagate its [religion].

And why does this organization fully abide by this law in Israel and warn all Baha'i teachers against preaching to Israelis around the world?

Perhaps the only convincing answer to these questions is in central Israel, where the core of the Baha'i organization is located, because this sect's life depends on full obedience to the orders of the occupying Israeli regime...
