

[PROVISIONAL TRANSLATION FROM PERSIAN]

[Translator's notes appear in square brackets.]

[Personal information has been redacted.]

[The excerpt below is from the section of the article that pertains to the Baha'i Faith]

[Newspaper:] Azad

[Date:] 20 Ordibehesht 1334 [11 May 1955]

[Issue No.:] 349

Mocking!

Realism ...!

They closed down the Baha'i Assembly [Centre] – Each person has interpreted it according to his own understanding, but from a realistic point of view, it was a good thing [decision], because if one could not even adhere to the religion, not even a stone can hold another stone [there would be chaos].

It seems that the “followers of Akka” have complained to the United Nations to obtain the minorities' rights; that is, like the pure-natured and Iran-loving Zoroastrians or Armenians and Jews, who have a seat in the parliament and start [publishing their own] newspaper.

That day would be great chaos.

They did well by suffocating this dirty offspring before birth.

“Fozul” [Nosy]