Renovation of the Babi Graves Under the Shadow of the Authorities' Negligence

Haji Mirza Hasan Roshdiyeh was an Azali, branch of the perverse Babism.

According to Ferghe News, Haji Mirza Hasan Roshdiyeh was an Azali, a branch of the perverse Babism. According to individuals such as Edward Brown and Ali-Akbar Ardaghi, the opening of Roshdiyeh schools in Tehran was on the direct orders of Sheikh Hadi Najmabadi to Roshdiyeh and Ali Khan Amin al-Dawla.

The security agencies must follow the matters that seek to revive the memory of Babism and Baha'ism in the Shiite capital of the world.
