

[PROVISIONAL TRANSLATION FROM PERSIAN]

[Translator's notes appear in square brackets.]

[Personal information has been redacted.]

[The excerpt below is from the section of the article that pertains to the Baha'i Faith]

[Adapted from website:]: Official Website of Ayatollah Shubairi Zanjani

[Date:] 1 Shahrivar 1394 [23 August 2015]

Question

Accepting Gifts from Baha'is

Can we accept a gift from a person who has become a Baha'i, and use it?

Response:

A Muslim who has become infidel and Baha'i is not the owner of his property. Accepting a gift from a Baha'is should be avoided, if it strengthens or confirms this perverse sect, which is considered the enemy of the true religion, or if there is the fear of weakening the true belief of Shiism.