Aban-e Bartar Publishing House in Mashhad Published the Book "Baha'ism, Viper's Bite"

According to the book correspondent of the Iranian Students News Agency (ISNA) – Khorasan region, this book, a review of the dirty history of the Masonic sects of Babism and Baha'ism, based on documents, memoirs, research and the confessions of its survivors, was written by Ghasem Sadraiefar and Seyyed Mohammad Hedayati Khader.

An excerpt from the introduction of the book, "Baha'ism, Viper's Bite", states, "Willingly or unwillingly committing to oblivion the conspiracies and machinations of the Baha'is over the past decade has led to the authoring of this work, because it seems that in the tumult of a sect such as Wahhabism (ISIS), the poisonous efforts of filthy Baha'ism, [wrapped] in a veil of deception, and its commitment to colonialism, have, in themselves, made the Baha'is more successful in advancing their nefarious goals."

This book has been published in 192 pages in paperback ...

The circulation of the book, "Baha'ism, Viper's Bite", is 1,001 copies, and it is offered at the price of 6,000 tomans.
